Informations

The city of Bejaia, located at 250 km in the east of Algiers, was one of the most prosperous cities of the Mediterranean Sea. Capital of great Moslem dynasties the city was initially known in Europe by the quality of its made beeswax candles to which it gave its name " Bougie ". Bejaia also played a significant role in the diffusion of the "Arab numerals" in Occident. Significant industrial pole of the area, with a concentration of many industries and one of the largest ports in Algeria, Béjaïa has also an international airport.

The conference is organized by:

International Conference on Electrical Engineering, Electronics and Automatics'10
